And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

In the weekly newspaper business one of the first things you notice about a month is how many Thursdays are in it because that determines how many papers you will have that month. This is just like people who are paid weekly notice how many paydays there are in a month.

Back in January we were surprised to see that our shortest month of the year, February, would have five Thursdays in it. But it was not until our friend Jack Scott, publisher of the Cross Plains Review, pointed out the fact that we will have an issue dated Feb. 29 that we realized just how rare this month is.

According to his figures the last time this happened was in 1940 and it will be 28 more years before it happens again, or in 1996.

This makes this week's issue somewhat of a novelty as it is just every 28 years that the Herald can carry a Feb. 29 date. This is the third time for this to happen in the 62-year history of this paper.

Along this same line, today is the first real birthday that a number of people have had in four years, as they have to borrow a date to celebrate their birthday during the years that are not leap years.

We see by the Senior Class calendar that Gary Don Maberry, Chris Perrin and Helen Hames are celebrating their birthdays today and we are sure there are others. A special birthday wish to each of you.

Remember, how as a child, you were eager to have your mother and father notice your achievements — encourage your aims and ambitions? Stop and think about it, and we find that even as adults, attention once in a while still feels good.

It's the same for your children. That's why Public Schools Week in Texas is such a good idea.

This year, March 4th through 8th is the week being set aside for this, and it's your chance to visit your child at his school. While both the teachers and the administration welcome everyone to visit our schools at anytime they make it easy this week by holding open house Tuesday night. You'll meet his teachers, and see first hand what he's accomplishing — the progress he's making toward his goals.

Besides offering him encouragement, a visit to your child's class room will let you see how your tax dollars are being spent for modern education. You'll marvel at the many advancements Texas education has made in just the last year.

Texas teachers and newest innovations in Texas schools are readying your child for tomorrow's world. You can help your child, and our public schools with a visit to your child's classroom during Public Schools Week in Texas. This visit is your responsibility. But, it's one both you and your child will enjoy.

The Lions Club will sponsor their annual Pancake Supper this Friday, which will precede the Junior Play. This will be a nice opportunity to have an enjoyable evening out.

The game was played for last Friday night but was re-set this week because of the girl's basketball game in Abilene.

One thing unusual about this year's supper is that all of the proceeds will go to very worthy causes. Half will go to the Boy Scouts as it has in the past and the other half will go to the L. H. McBride Memorial Fund at the Lions Club Cripple Children's Camp at Kerrville.

You can have a good time and help several projects by coming early for the supper with the Lions and then attending the Junior Play.

Infants who receive the primary immunizing series in the form of the three monovalent poliovirus vaccines administered separately beginning at less than six months of age should be given a single dose of Trivalent Vaccine at approximately one year of age.

Of Trivalent Vaccine should be given at the time of entry into elementary school.

The Academy further recommends that oral polio virus vaccine and live measles virus vaccine be given separately at intervals of at least one month.

Also, if a child has had measles in the past two weeks the polio vaccine should not be given.

Administration of the vaccine should be delayed in the presence of persistent vomiting or diarrhea, and in patients with acute illness other than minor, afebrile upper respiratory infection, Dr. Perrin said.

The polio immunization drive is being sponsored by the Hamlin Parent - Teachers Association. Donations to help defray the cost of the project will be received and appreciated.

'PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK'—

Schools Plan Open House Here Tuesday

March 4 through March 8 has been declared Texas Public School Week by Governor John Connally. The week will be observed by the Hamlin Public Schools with an open house Tuesday evening, according to Supt. C. F. Cook.

In making the announcement, Mr. Cook said that the purpose of the open house is to invite all citizens to visit the schools. "If we can get people to visit our schools," he added, "I believe they will come away convinced, as we are, that Hamlin has a good school system."

But Mr. Cook also pointed out, "We do not want you to visit our schools only once a year, but to visit them often. You cannot have a true perspective of your school by visiting only once a year."

Supt. Cook added, "Public School Week and your visit will provide an occasion for the inspection of the buildings and an insight into the quality of teaching and administration your child is receiving. We feel that your tax dollar is being spent wisely in giving your teachers and children materials and equipment to do a better job of learning."

In inviting the public to the open house, Mr. Cook said, "Meet your teachers, inspect the quality of work they are doing, check the equipment and teaching aids we are providing your child, inquire about your child's ability and whether your child is doing the type of work he is capable of doing. It is helpful to know your teachers and to recognize their problems. Teachers are the heart and core of our school system. No school can be any better or any worse than your teachers."

LOWER GRADES

The hours set for open house in the primary and elementary buildings Tuesday evening are from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

The open house also serves as the March meeting of the Hamlin Parent - Teachers Association.

JUNIOR HIGH

Parents and friends are invited to the Junior High School from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesday. Individual work of each student will be displayed on his desk in his home room.

Principal Marvin D. Carlton said that this is an excellent opportunity to visit with the teachers and become better acquainted with the school.

Of particular interest to parents would be to visit the library, reading center, band hall, music building and art department, Carlton said.

HIGH SCHOOL

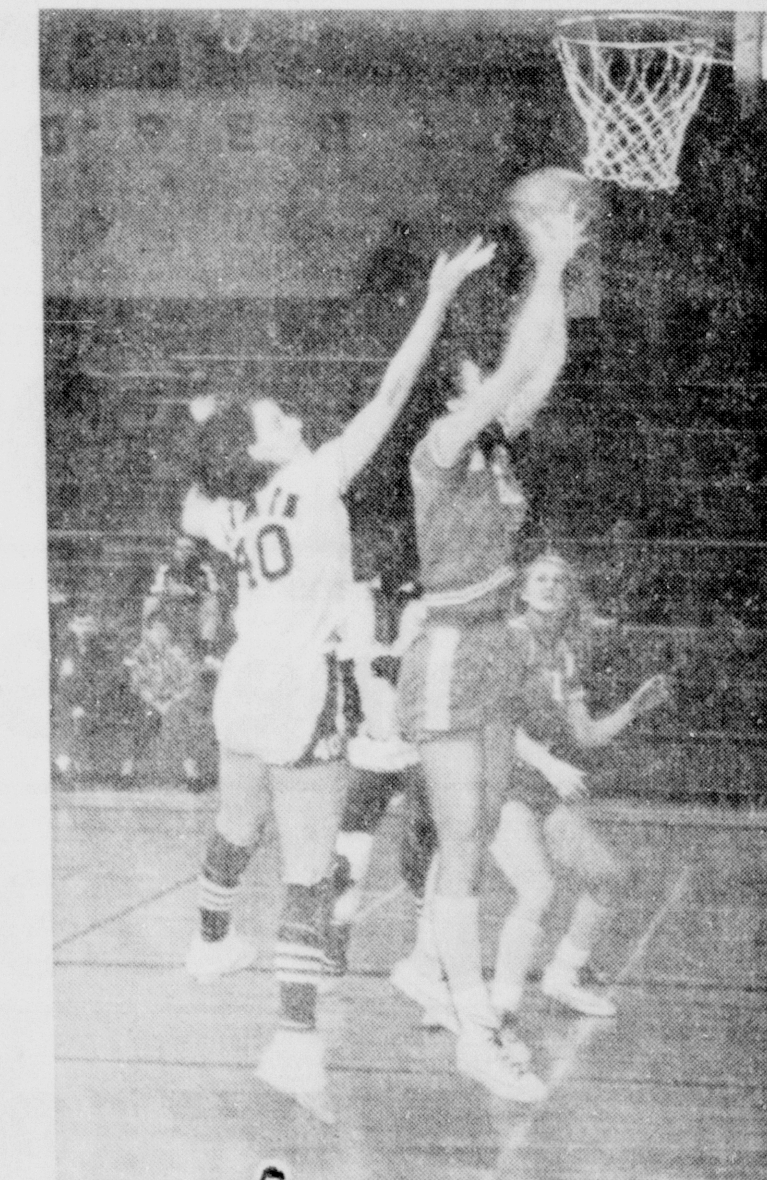

The high school building will be open from 7 to 8 p.m. Tuesday and the administration and faculty invite parents and others to visit at this time.

Departments will have on display various projects, workbooks, notebooks and other items of interest, according to B. V. Newberry, principal.

Neinda Philosopher Wants to Call Out the National Guard to Empty His Piled-Up Trash Can

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One reviews a problem we really hadn't thought much about. Dear editor:

Since one of the problems of living on this Johnson grass farm out here or any other place in the country is what to do with your garbage, naturally I followed the garbage collection troubles of New York City, in the newspapers and on television.

If you haven't thought about it, you might suppose that garbage would be a minor problem in the country, but think about it a minute. Where would YOU put it? Start your own trash dump? Haul it to town? Let it stack up? Dig a hole and bury it every time the wastebasket is full?

It's sort of like Viet Nam. You didn't know there was a problem there until people started calling your attention to it, did you?

Therefore, I followed the New York situation closer than I would a good western and what I'd like to know is why can't we get a system like that going around here? I'm talking about the solution.

It's simple, as I understand it. All you do is stack your garbage outside your home and if the Mayor won't pick it up the Governor will.

Maybe at first nobody pays any attention to it, but just keep sacking it up and sooner or later it'll get noticed. Sometimes politicians are said to be insensitive to the problems of the people, but it's not true when it comes to week old garbage.

When I saw the television pictures of that New York garbage overflowing the sidewalks and piling up in the streets I said to myself, I don't have the answer to that problem but somebody's going to figure it out.

It's different in the country, though. Just this morning I was eyeing my trash can, wondering if I could get a little more packed into it, maybe round it over on top, or shove it ahead and call out the National Guard to empty it, wondering if I should wire the Governor or go over his head and contact the President.

I'll empty it myself in a day or so, I guess, but in the meantime it's gratifying to know that when it comes to garbage I'm up on the New York level. You can't beat sophistication.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Funeral Services Held Sunday for George Raney, 89

Services for George D. Raney, 89, were held Sunday in Hamlin Church of Christ by the minister, Douglas LeCroy. Mr. Raney, a resident of Hamlin since 1902, died at 7:35 p.m. Friday at Hamlin Memorial Hospital. He had been a patient for three days.

Born July 28, 1878, in Louisiana, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mansel T. Raney. He was married to the former Fannie Randolph at Comanche Mar. 15, 1900. She died in 1967.

He was a retired farmer and member of the Church of Christ.

Burial was in Neinda Cemetery.

Survivors include two sons, Homer and J. D., both of Hamlin; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kate Raney of Midland; one grandson, Jimmy Curt Raney of Washington, D. C.; several nieces and nephews. One son, Robert, died in 1934.

Pallbearers were Jeff Randolph, Jack Hendrix, Hershel Wheeler, A. A. Wade, J. D. Wyatt and H. R. Daniell.

Foul Play Being Checked In Feb. 10 House Fire

Investigation of the fire that destroyed a house owned by Oddis Hallmark is still underway, says Hamlin Police Chief Bryan Wasson.

The dwelling at 128 S. E. Ave. B was vacant but furnished at the time of the fire at 3 a.m. Feb. 10. Chief Wasson said the gas and lights were off therefore indications were that the fire was set either by accident or intentionally.

Deputy State Fire Marshal Owen Davis will be here to help with the investigation, he added.

Don Walden At Vietnam Air Base

WITH U. S. COMBAT AIR FORCES, Vietnam — Airman First Class Don M. Walden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walden of 99 SE 6th St., Hamlin, Tex., is on duty at Cam Ranh Bay Air Base, Vietnam.

Airman Walden, a security policeman, is a member of the Pacific Air Forces. Before his arrival in Southeast Asia, he was assigned to Carswell AFB, Texas.

The airman is a graduate of Hamlin High School.

The cost of some durable medical equipment can now be paid for under Medicare in place of paying for only the rental charges.

SOMEBODY CARES

It is so important that someone cares about how this child grows up. Someone cares that she is clothed and fed and loved. Someone cares that she goes to school and grows in mind as well as body. Someone cares about her childhood wonder and curiosity and wants to see them satisfied. Someone cares enough to teach her to love other people and will help her in her relations with them. Someone cares about her spirit and desires for her the highest ideals and standards, and will help her to know God. Are you this someone?

Let it be said of her as it was said of Him,

"And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man." Luke 2:52.

TAKE SOMEONE TO CHURCH THIS WEEK

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, — A rather important corner may have been turned by the State of Texas in providing transportation facilities for its people. This by clarifying where the line between state and federal regulatory power should be drawn.

Texas Aeronautics Commission took the big step when its six members voted to certify Air Southwest Co. of San Antonio as an intrastate airline competing with the large, federally regulated interstate lines.

Air Southwest plans to offer commuter service among Dallas, San Antonio, and Houston using Lockheed Electra prop-jets. It says it can offer service comparable to the large airlines and at rates lower by more than 20 per cent.

Federal-state rub is that Civil Aeronautics Board licenses the interstate carriers and has its service and subsidy balances all worked out, without considering any state-licensed airlines.

So, Air Southwest is going to upset those balances somewhat, by taking from Braniff, Tran-Texas and Continental airlines some of the revenue now received under their charters from CAB.

CAB did not make its wishes in the matter of Air Southwest's certification known to the Texas Aeronautics Commission. But Braniff, TTA and Continental did. Result was a seven-day hearing before TAC examiners, then another hearing for oral arguments before the commission itself.

Despite TAC's favorable ruling, the fight is far from over. Opponents to Air Southwest's plans have made it known that they plan to take their case into the courts — as far as it will go.

In the state courts, they will maintain that the TAC's action was not based on "substantial evidence." If they fail there, one attorney said they might go into the federal courts, charging that the TAC certification placed an undue burden on interstate commerce in violation of the U. S. Constitution.

SPECIAL SESSION OUTLOOK — Gov. John Connally revealed a "new unofficial estimate" by State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert on available General Revenue Funds, indicating that available revenue for operating state government may be some $50,000,000 higher than the comptroller's October, 1967, estimate of $297,600,000.

Governor Connally says the import of that is "the increase in available revenues will relieve the pressures for as large a tax bill as was originally anticipated" for the special legislative fiscal session. Connally has denied that he will call a special session of the Legislature in March.

"I am hopeful that if the special legislative session this year can be postponed until June," Speaker Ben Barnes said, "the figure will be even less" than the previous estimate of $115,000,000 in new tax resources necessary to support the state government in the fiscal year which begins September 1.

Barnes said recent revisions in revenue estimates mean that if the Legislature had passed a two-year tax bill in 1967, instead of waiting for a special session, Texas taxpayers would have been taxed about $60,000,000 more than necessary.

L. B. J. CONTRAT AWARD-

ED — A contract for construction of 16,673 feet of high gameproof fencing at Lyndon B. Johnson State Park in Gillespie County has been awarded to Jasper Moore of Ingram. Moore was the lowest among five bidders with a project price of $19,717.

Parks and Wildlife Department said the fencing project was designed more to keep exhibition animals in L. B. J. State Park than to keep visitors out. But it will enclose a large portion of the park and separate it from Ranch Road 1 and the L. B. J. Ranch, known as "The Texas White House."

PEOPLE POLLUTION! — "With over population a world problem, Planned Parenthood is becoming increasingly important as a governmental project," says Alan Bloebaum, regional director of the Southwest Region of Planned Parenthood.

A five-state district meeting on the subject is set for March 4 and 5 in Austin. This conference will be followed by a series of state sessions on family planning. Among them will be a special family planning conference by OEO, the American Association of Planned Parenthood Physicians and the State Nursing Association.

Cost of planned parenthood for one family per year is about $15, whereas the cost of welfare support-federal, state and county — for a dependent child is about $1,200 a year.

DRAFT QUOTA UP SHARPLY — Texas draft boards next month must furnish the largest monthly quota of young men for military service in nearly two years. Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said the local boards have been called on to provide 1,948 men — most since the 2,012-man quota of November, 1966. Low point in the interim was 674 men last February.

This year's monthly quotas have been 1,165 men in February and 1,659 in January. National call for March induction is 39,000 men. All are for the Army.

FIRE RATE CUT PROPOSED — State Board of Insurance proposed its first cuts in seven years (average of 3.6 per cent) in statewide fire extended coverage and home owners insurance premiums.

Rate experts suggested 4.4 per cent reduction in fire premiums, 3 per cent in extended coverage and 3.1 per cent average for home owners.

Fire and extended coverage rates are set statewide, and homeowners rates are figured on a three-region basis due to weather hazards.

HONOR ROLL — John Hix chairman of the scholarship committee of the annual program of work, brings the FFA Honor Roll up to date. This honor roll is tabulated each semester.

VISITORS TO AUSTIN — Tourists from all over the state and from every area of the nation visit the State Capitol Building in Austin. Its doors are open day and night.

Something new has been added for the visitors' pleasure. It's a beautiful 170-page, 7x10 book in gorgeous colors entitled "The Texas Capitol — Symbol of Accomplishment."

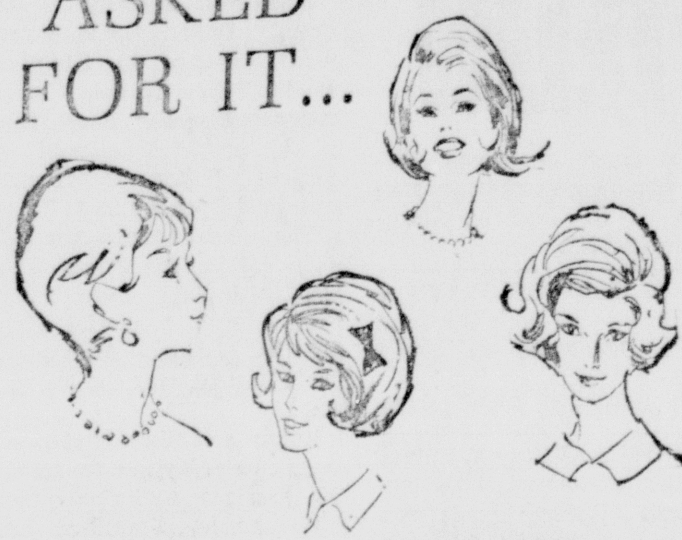

If you're contemplating a trip to Austin, write the Texas State Highway Department for a copy of this $2 book.

You'll double the pleasure of your visit by having background information on what you're going to see.

No matter what the earnings, a Social Security beneficiary may keep his check for any month in 1968 that his earnings are $140 or less.

The new minimum benefit for a retired person under Social Security will be $55, unless reduced for early retirement before age 65.

1967 A Banner Year for Tourists In Texas -- More Visitors, More Money

AUSTIN — Texas last year hosted more visitors — who spent more money here — than ever before, the Texas Highway Department reported today.

A total of 20,684,000 persons from out of the State visited Texas in 1967. They spent a record $1,203,137,000, making 1967 the second year in a row that the value of the Texas travel industry has surpassed the billion-dollar mark.

The automobile again was the favorite mode of transportation.

The Highway Department's annual visitor industry survey showed 15,198,000 persons visited Texas by automobile during the year. Their expenditures in the State amounted to a total of $807,972,000 while in the State. Total number of automobile visitors was up 7.4 per cent over 1966, and their expenditures rose 11.6 per cent.

In addition, the Texas Tourist Council, an Austin-based association of travel-related businesses, estimated that an additional 5,486,000 out-of-State visitors came to Texas by commercial carriers. This group added an estimated $395,165,000 to the State's economy.

The Highway Department's survey of automobile travelers employed visual and mechanical traffic count surveys.

Valuable data also was gained from more than 122 thousand questionnaires distributed by the Department's Tourist Information Bureaus at key highway gateways and returned by out-of-State visitors.

tors at the completion of their Texas visit.

Statistically, the average tourist party included 2.99 persons — .09 of a person more than in 1966 — who stayed in Texas 5.98 days, or .18 of a day longer than in 1966.

Average spending per person was $8.89 a day — up 9 cents from the year before. The average party made expenditures of $26.59 per day.

This and other data will be included in the Highway Department's annual Visitor Industry Report which will be available soon.

The data is concerned with out-of-State visitors only. Millions of Texans traveling within the borders of their own State are not included. No such figures are available, but, undoubtedly, Texans themselves have an enormous additional impact on the overall Texas travel industry.

The report also will reflect the activities of the Highway Department's Travel and Information Division and the Texas Tourist Development Agency, representing the State's travel development efforts, and the Texas Tourist Council, representing the private business sector.

The Highway Department's Travel and Information Division hosted 775 thousand travelers at its Tourist Information Centers, an increase of 2.5 per cent over 1966. In addition, more than 300 thousand travel inquiries by mail were answered by the Division.

More than four million pieces of descriptive literature were distributed. About half of this total was produced by

HHS Students Finish Fourth Six Weeks, Await Report Cards

Tommy Oliver
Beth Craig
Janet Carson
With our fourth six weeks test over everyone has taken a temporary breather, that is until Thursday when report cards will be handed out.

Having sold most of the reserved balcony and center section seats, the junior class is expecting a capacity turnout for their play, "Boys and Ghouls Together." The play will be presented Friday night, March 1, in the Hamlin High School Auditorium. Tickets may be purchased from any junior at the door, but to get a good reserved seat one should buy them early. The matinee will be Thursday afternoon, and the Friday evening performance will begin at 7:30 p.m.

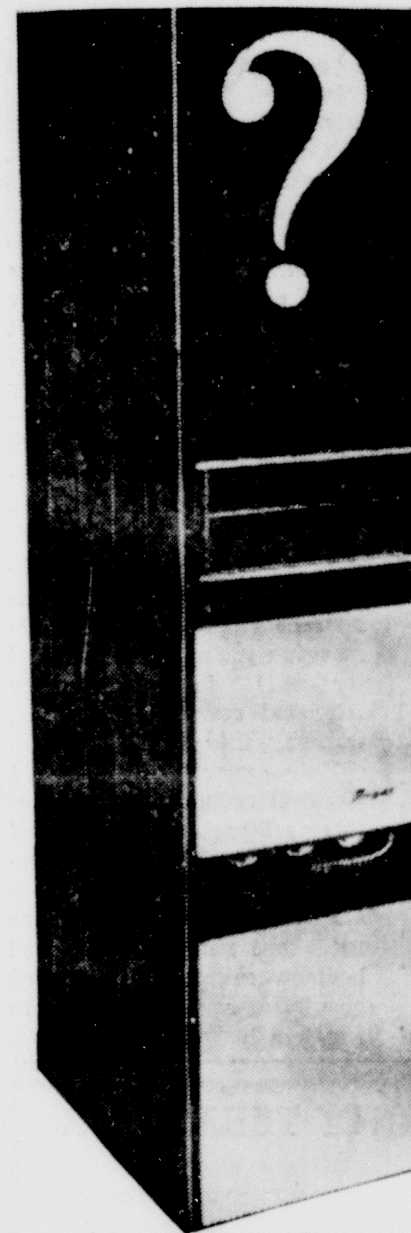

Hamlin's defeat by Winters certainly was a surprise to many of the HHS students Friday night. The Piperettes played a good game, but they just weren't able to hit the basket as frequently as they should have to win the game. They were downed 51 to 41.

The Hamlin Stage Band returned home Friday night from the Brownwood Stage

Band Festival with the first place trophy in Class AA. The band had left in individual cars early Friday morning, but due to the bad weather the judges were unable to arrive on time delaying the contest until late in the afternoon. Western Heights of Oklahoma City won second, and Atlanta won third. Other schools competing were Connally and Midway of Waco, Justin, Bridgeport, Ingleside, Hamilton, San Saba, Burleson, Clyde, Gladewater, Wellington, Jacksboro, and Copperas Cove.

Jo Lynn Johnson was elected parliamentarian at the Area IV Future Homemakers of America at Tarleton State College Friday and Saturday of last week. Jo Lynn had hoped to be elected first vice-president, but instead was elected parliamentarian. Judy Adair, Beth Craig, Sandra Payne, Cheryl Gibson, Peggy Jones, Jerry Elliott, and Marcia Steele, also went to the Convention. Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. Carter chaperoned and sponsored the girls' activities while they were there.

San Antonio is celebrating its 250th anniversary during HemisFair'68.

Cotton Pickin's

By ROLLING PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

An objective of two West Texas cotton promotion groups in the next 12 months will be a program to expand the export trade of the United States grown cotton, especially the shorter staple varieties, with European and Far Eastern countries.

Executives of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers and the Plains Cotton Growers, Vice Presidents Charles Bragg of Stamford and Donald Johnson of Lubbock, conferred last week in Washington with representatives of two international cotton trade groups and the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the projected program.

"Full cooperation of the USDA, the Cotton Council International and the International Institute for Cotton was pledged to the two grower groups of West Texas," Bragg stated.

"It was pointed out in the Washington conferences that more than 40 per cent of the short staple cotton grown in the Rolling Plains and High Plains counties was now being exported to Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, South Korea and South Vietnam," Bragg stated.

The short staple varieties grown in these two areas are used extensively in the manufacture of cloth in these countries. It is believed that its use in manufacture in other foreign countries could be increased.

Following the Washington conferences, officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture agreed to sponsor, in the next 60 to 90 days, two foreign trade missions, one to the Far East and one to Europe. Representatives from the Rolling Plains and Plains Cotton Growers will be invited to take part in the missions.

Representative George Mahon of Lubbock and Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls are to confer with USDA officials concerning personnel of the trade mission group.

While in Washington, Bragg and Johnson also conferred with Representative Bob Poage of Waco, Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Representative Purcell, member of the committee, Mahon, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, and USDA officials.

Discussion related primarily to the nature of cotton legislation that would likely be enacted during the present session of Congress.

Congressman Poage said that hearings on farm legislation would likely begin in the next 60 days, or as soon as he and Secretary of Agriculture Freeman returned from attending a trade fair in Japan in April.

The legislative committee of the RPCG will meet soon to discuss details of a cotton program in the new legislative act that would be acceptable to members.

Social Security beneficiaries will find their February 1968 checks, due March 2, 1968, increased by at least 13%.
